MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, MAY 16, 1904.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

POSITIVELY

Copy for "changes" in advertisements MUST be sent in before 2 o'clock on the previous day.

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 13, and let us have it.

The funeral of the late Henry Roth took place Saturday morning at Dayton, O.

Mr. Frank Perrie, who has been ill at his home near Dover, is much better.

At public sale the assigned personalty of Henry W. Rasp brought $638.29.

The foundation is being laid for the Sexton's residence at St. Patrick's Cemetery, Washington.

Colonel Sam Stairs ventured up from Dover Saturday, and the firebells rang in honor of his coming.

Mr. Harvey Grannia and son Herbert of Flemingsburg were in the city interviewing our merchants Saturday.

Miss Ethel B. McMillan, an accomplished teacher of Dover, is an applicant for a position in the Public Schools of this city.

Maysville Commandery No. 10, K. T., never does things on the half shell. It has secured Weber's Band for the Frankfort pilgrimage.

The many friends of Mr. Thomas M. Russell will be glad to know that his eyesight is much improved under special treatment. He came up from Cincinnati Saturday, returning this morning.

A dispatch from Marion, O., says Dudley Allen, a sixteen-year-old hobo of this city, was shot by an Erie Railroad Detective while fleeing from arrest. Does anybody know the Honorable Hobo?

Yesterday's C. and O. Cincinnati excursion was a whopper, notwithstanding the damp raw weather. It bowled in from Huntington with 14 coaches, adding 2 here, and 185 tickets were sold at the West End Station.

The Maysville team crossed bats with the Carlisle team at Hatchings Park, Carlisle, Saturday, and though defeated played a fairly good game. The score was 6 to 4 in favor of Carlisle. Jacobs and Dreesel and Still and Hammond were the pitchers.

Saturday morning three Albinos, a father and two daughters, attracted considerable attention as they passed along the street by the preternatural whiteness of their skin and hair, and a peculiar redness of the iris and pupil of the eye. They were evidently musicians, as the father was carrying a case of some kind of musical instruments.

Bargains in Cut Glass Pitchers, Tumblers, Water Bottles, Berry Bowls, Ice Tubs, Salad Bowls, Vinegar Bottles, Salt and Pepper, Flower Vases, Bon Bon, Butter Plates, Mayonnaise Bowls, Sugar and Cream, Milk Pitchers, Individual Salt Tubs, Wine Sets at P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

SUMMER OPENING.
Mrs. O. B. Stitt will display an entire new line of Summer Millinery Thursday, May 19th.

Owingsville was treated to a cold wave and a hailstorm Saturday.

There was a light white frost in the Washington neighborhood last night.

Prof. Ryan of Mt. Carmel is an applicant for the Principalship of the Sixth Ward School.

It now develops that the Continental Tobacco Company's warehouse at Georgetown, O., was fired by an incendiary.

Members of Maysville Commandery will leave over the L. and N. at 1:15 tomorrow afternoon for the state convalescence at Frankfort.

The Rev. S. B. Alderson will leave Portsmouth today for Topeka, Kansas. He will be joined in Cincinnati by his daughter, Miss Elizabeth, who will accompany him.

Mr. Newell B. Downing, as Administrator of F. M. Downing, has settled with Auditor's Agent O'Donnell for back taxes for the year 1903. The state and county taxes, penalty, &c., amounted to $44.40.

C. W. Limeson, formerly of the Appleyard Syndicate and Northwestern in the Kansas City and St. Joe traction lines, as well as the C. B. and A., is here and will remain and assist A. A. Luther. A party of surveyors started from Aberdeen this morning.

Uncle Billie Hawes and Alton Schatzmann got lost in the trail home from Paducah last week and when they finally recovered their bearings it was at Ashland. It being Carnival week in that beautiful little river city, Mr. Robinson, who is billed to appear here in June, gave the wandering Indians a free pass to all the shows. They give a glowing account of the exhibitions and say they are high-class and up-to-date.

See advertisement elsewhere of Anagnoe's sale of property of Timothy Buckley.

SHOT AT THE TRAIN

And the Ball Came Near Striking a Brooksville Gentleman

As the excursion train was passing through Covington last night, and when about Tenth street, some miscreant fired a pistol ball through a plate glass window.

Mr. George Metcalfe of Brooksville was sitting with his head resting against the window, and he was considerably cut about the face from flying glass.

He was taken off at Wellsburg in a precarious condition from loss of blood and shock.

Messrs. Robert Picklin and John C. Rains were in the seat back of Mr. Mitchell and some of the glass struck them.

Printing

is done with the newest type and the oldest know how at The Ledger Printery. It isn't what you pay, but it's what you get for what you pay that counts. Work done when promised.

Miss Lulu Roberson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Roberson, died Friday near Millersburg.

We have sold our $100 bargain and now offer one at $175. Come and see it. MURRAY & THOMAS.

It wouldn't be altogether bad if the proper authority would take a reef in the strike-wheel of the town clock. When it sounded 12 o'clock the other night it was mistaken for a fire alarm.

The Ladies' Mite Society of the M. E. Church will meet with Mrs. Charles Fint, East Fifth street, next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Soliciting Committee is requested to bring in its reports.

R & G CORSETS

The inside of an R & G Corset is moulded to fit you—the outside fits the Fashion.

Corset styles, like most other styles, come from Paris. The R & G makers watch the Parisian Corsetiers as a cat watches a mouse and as soon as a new style is out and approved it is expressed in an R & G model.

If you wear the R & G you are wearing the same models that the highest-priced custom corset maker would give—if he were up-to-the-minute himself.

No. 827, Price $1—Straight front, deep hip. Produces most successfully the slender, long effect which the new style costume demand.

No. 837—Straight front, deep hip, made of finest coutille. Price $1.50.

Other styles at prices from $1 to $10.

Double Stamps Saturday and Monday ALL DAY.

FOR $1 PURCHASE YOU GET $2 WORTH OF STAMPS
FOR $2 PURCHASE YOU GET $4 WORTH OF STAMPS
FOR $5 PURCHASE YOU GET $10 WORTH OF STAMPS

Globe Stamps are here to stay, and in order to give the many hundreds who have redeemed their books lately a good, fresh start on a new book, we have decided to give double Stamps on Saturday and Monday. The largest stores in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago have adopted trading stamps. We give them to induce cash trade, and believe the cash customer is entitled to this advantage over the credit customer. The Maysville public wants Globe Trading Stamps; they shall continue to have them. To the "KNOCKERS" we wish to thank for the free advertising they have given Globe Stamps lately, and we also wish to assure them that Globe Stamps are better than ever and are here to stay. Watch us dish them out on Saturday and Monday at the rate of 2 for 1.
